Tempest & Nathaniel
 Seattle, WA

Tempest is a world-renowned bellydance performer and instructor, focusing on sacred and darkly inspired fusions that pull from the traditions of North Africa, the Middle East, and the Mediterranean. Her compellingly artful performances exemplify her distinctively theatrical, unique, and expressive style that are rooted in oriental dance technique with a transcendent approach. Nathaniel Johnstone is a multi-instrumentalist virtuoso whose music pulls from myth, fantasy, and folklore with a vibrant sound crossing boundaries & borders, resulting in a blend of multicultural folk rock.

Anatomy of a Song & Dance: Does the audience see you as the visual representation of your music? Using original music by Nathaniel Johnstone, they dissect the layers, address the musicality and translation into movement, then put the layers into a cohesive dance. Learn to listen more effectively, identify instrumentation, and make fabulously informed choices about foundations and accents.

Chelydra
 Newport News, VA

Early in her career as a middle eastern dancer, Chelydra fell in love with the folk dances of North Africa and the Middle East. As the original artistic director of the Caravan East Dance Troupe, and then through Dancing Turtle Folk Arts, she has performed and taught these dances throughout the mid-Atlantic region for more than two decades, and is proud to have been selected twice to perform in the ODU Local Choreographer's Showcase. She considers dance to be serious fun.

Art of the Skirt: Did you know your skirt has a personality, just as your veil does? Learn to partner with your skirt, taking advantage of its unique qualities to incorporate the drama, depth, and playfulness seen in Andalusian, Romany, and samba dances into your individual repertoire. Enhance your dance!

Performing slots for the dance party are available on a first-come, first-served basis (priority is given to returning performers who were wait-listed the previous year). Twelve openings are reserved for returning performers, and six are reserved for new participants. Open dance slots will be filled from the waiting list after the preregistration cutoff. To be fair to everyone, performers may only dance once (group or solo). You MUST register for the seminar to qualify for a place in the program.

Routines are limited to seven minutes (but remember, less is sometimes more). Music must be on CD-R (not CD-RW).

Dalia Carella
 New York, New York

Dalia Carella is a renowned Near/Middle Eastern and world fusion solo artist, choreographer, master teacher, and Founder/Artistic Director of the Dalia Carella Dance Collective. Through classes and seminars, she has generously shared her unique wealth of world dance technique and theatrical presentation with professional and student dancers for many years. Her classes in innovative Belly Dance, Turkish Romani, and Flamenco Araby movements and skirt work have been sought after and appreciated by both Near/Middle Eastern and Tribal Dance communities around the world.

Tango Oriental: The Passionate Veil: Looking for different ways of expressing yourself? Using sultry tango music, this class will inspire you to create movement and shapes, using the veil as your partner in dance. Become one with your veil: feel its intensity, feel its beauty, flow with it. Explore expressive combinations and air design movement. Experience Dalia's unique approach to veil work, a result of her years of innovative dance experience.
